"Jesus is believed to have died at the age of 33 after a life of approximately 12,000 days. The Gospel writers devoted most of their work to just 1,100 or so of those days, the last 3 years of his life; and their primary interest was in one particular day - the day he was crucified. They believed this 24-hour period changed the world, and each of the Gospels drives toward it.

Beginning Thursday evening after sunset and lasting on through Friday, Jesus would eat the Last Supper with his disciples; pray in the garden of Gethsemane; be betrayed and deserted by his friends; be convicted of blasphemy by the religious authorities; be tried and sentenced for insurrection by Pontius Pilate; be tortured by Roman soldiers; and undergo crucifixion, death, and burial...The suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ represent the pinnacle of the gospel and the completion of God's saving work through Jesus Christ." ~Rev. Adam Hamilton

As you read each day's passage, think about/discuss/journal:

.What does this passage teach me about God? What does it say about myself?

.How can I live differently, how does my view of the world need to change, according to what I've learned from this passage?

.One specific next step I'm going to take this week is:

Discussion Questions

.What memories define you?

.Put yourself in the place of one of the disciples, how would this night shape who you were and would be afterwards?

.Jesus looked past their betrayals, sins and failures- our too. What does that mean for you?

.In what way does your participation in the regular ritual of Holy Communion help you recall your own experience of deliverance? How does it define or shape who you are?

>>READ>1 Corinthians 11:23-32

.Why did Paul consider it so crucial that partakers of the Lord's Supper "examine" themselves first? To what extent do we do that today?

.Christ had his close circle of 12 which he did ministry, ate and share his life with. If you are not in a small group- what will be you willing to rearrange in your schedule to experience community with God and his people?
